

What to prepare for switching to au/UQ

Thank you for visiting us today. Please ready the following for your contract.

MNP (Mobile phone Number Portability)

You can switch from a Japanese mobile phone carrier to au/UQ and keep your phone number.

Cautions when changing carriers

Before purchasing a new device, you will need to migrate data from your current device. Please back up your data in advance.

STEP 1

Obtain your “MNP reservation number” from your current mobile phone company.

You will not need an MNP reservation number to change from UQ mobile to au (without changing phone number).
